

Workshop

«Continuity and change in the economy of Graeco-Roman and Arab Egypt»

KU Leuven, 25 October 2013

Faculty of Arts (Erasmushuis, Blijde-Inkomststraat 21), Justus Lipsiuszaal 08.16

- 9.30 Coffee
- 10.10 Paul Erdkamp (VUB), Welcome
- 10.15 Joe G. Manning (Yale Univ.), Empire and economic performance
- 11.00 Katelijn Vandorpe (KU Leuven), Land surveys and tax receipts as evidence of continuity in agricultural policy (Hellenistic Egypt)

Mgr. Sencie Instituut (Erasmusplein 2), 00.14

- 13.30 Andrew Monson (New York Univ.), Secure property rights and low taxes: a recipe for economic growth in Roman Egypt?
- 14.15 Isabella Tsigarida (Univ. Zürich), Salt trade in Roman Egypt
- 15.00 Coffee break
- 15.30 Yaacov Lev (Bar Ilan Univ.), Egypt's agricultural economy in the transition from Byzantine to Arab rule
- Participation is free but for practical reasons please notify Katelijn.Vandorpe@arts.kuleuven.be